

Your Skiving Knife

by Peter Thomas

(based on Your Cheating Heart)

Verse:

G C
Your skiving knife, will dull some day,
D7 G
You'll crave the whetstone, you threw away.
C
Leather won't pare, the way it used to do.
D7 G
Your binding days, may soon be through.

First Bridge:

C G
The jobs come round. Leather onlay again.
A7 D7
You'll try to skive. But skive in vain....
G C
You'll walk the floor. What will you do?
D7 G
Your binding days, may soon be through.

(Solo through first verse then sing second bridge)

Second Bridge:

C G
The jobs come round. Leather onlay again.
A7 D7
You'll try to skive. But skive in vain....
G C
Send it off to France, have it skived for you,
D7 G
Your binding days, are not yet through!

(End: Tag last line slowly)